2. Employee Code of Conduct

The Employee Code of Conduct is founded on the notion of ensuring integrity in public service through the recognition and promotion of the fundamental principles of transparency, impartiality, respect and accountability.

The Impartiality section of the Employee Code of Conduct states as follows:

“Ottawa City Council is the elected voice of the citizens of the City of Ottawa. Its members have been elected to set the policy direction of the municipality. The public has an interest in ensuring that City of Ottawa employees are committed to carrying out the will and decisions of City Council, and that public servants are, and are perceived to be, impartial in carrying out their duties. Given the public interest in an impartial public service, employees must exercise restraint in any criticism of City of Ottawa policy and consider how their public comments may affect the public perception of the City.

We Do

- We recognize that City Council is the elected voice of the citizens of the City of Ottawa and we respect the decisions of City Council; and
- We distinguish between our personal comments or opinions and our jobs with the City.

We Do Not

- Make comments that disparage or harm the reputation of the City, Council or our co-workers;

- Claim to speak on behalf of the City unless we have been authorized to do so; and
- Make personal comments using City letterhead, our City e-mail address or anything else that implies a connected between our personal comments or opinions and the City.”

3. Workplace Violence and Harassment Policy

The Workplace Violence and Harassment Policy states as follows:

“The City of Ottawa is committed to ensuring a safe, healthy and respectful work environment free from all forms of violence and harassment.

The City of Ottawa prohibits workplace violence and harassment directed at employees by members of the public, between employees, or by an employee towards a member of the public.

This policy prohibits violence, harassment and discrimination under any of the categories defined in the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act, the Canada Labour Code, the Ontario Human Rights Code, and the Canadian Human Rights Act.”

4. Procedure By-law

The Procedure By-law establishes rules, procedure and conduct within Council and Standing Committee meetings. Specifically, Subsection 42(1)(a), titled, “Conduct of Members in Council,” states as follows:

“No Member shall: Speak disrespectfully of the Reigning Sovereign, or of any Member of the Royal Family, or of the Governor General or the Lieutenant-Governor of any province, or of a fellow Member of Council or staff.”

The Code of Conduct for Members of Council and the Procedure By-law govern the conduct of Members within the context of a committee and Council meeting. Elected Officials shall treat City staff fairly and with respect, [as will staff in their conduct with Members of Council].

Responsibilities

Members of Council and officers and employees of the corporation are required to adhere to this policy and its governing provisions, including the Code of Conduct for Members of Council, the Employee Code of Conduct, the Workplace Violence and Harassment Policy, and the Procedure By-law.

Monitoring/Contraventions

The City Clerk shall be responsible for receiving complaints and/or concerns related to this policy. Upon receipt of a complaint and/or concern, the City Clerk shall notify the following who will investigate and respond to the complaint and/or concern accordingly:

1. In the case of officers and employees of the corporation, the Manager, Director or General Manager responsible for the employee and the Director, Human Resources; or
2. In the case of Council or a Member of Council, the Integrity Commissioner.

Where there is a discrepancy between the Council-Staff Relations Policy and the Code of Conduct for Members of Council or the Employee Code of Conduct, the language of the Code prevails.
