- S. Plante, conseillère – Déménagement du Centre de ressources communautaires de la Basse-Ville

Committee Recommendation(s)

That Council approve the following:

- 1. That the City of Ottawa consider programming that meets the needs of the surrounding Lowertown East community when deciding on how to manage the operations at 40 Cobourg; and
- 2. That City staff be directed to consider a lease agreement with the Lowertown Community Resource Center covering the transfer of its food bank to 40 Cobourg so that it can better meet the food insecurity needs of the community; and
- 3. That City Council agrees to waive the section of the City’s Leasing Policy that requires public notice of surplus real property available for lease should the parties agree to a lease agreement; and
- 4. That the City be henceforth responsible for the management and operation of the City-owned building.

Recommandation(s) du comité

Que le Conseil approuve ce qui suit :

- 1. Que la Ville d’Ottawa envisage l’offre d’un programme répondant aux besoins de la collectivité environnante de la Basse-Ville Est lorsqu’elle décidera de la gestion des activités au 40, rue Cobourg; et
- 2. Que l’on demande au personnel de la Ville d’étudier la possibilité d’une entente de location avec le Centre de ressources communautaires de la Basse-Ville couvrant le déménagement de sa banque d’alimentation au 40, rue Cobourg afin qu’elle puisse mieux répondre aux besoins de la population en matière de sécurité alimentaire; et
- 3. Que le Conseil municipal accepte de renoncer à l’article de la Politique municipale sur la location à bail qui exige un avis public concernant les

biens immobiliers excédentaires à louer si les deux parties acceptent de conclure une entente de location; et

- 4. Que la Ville soit dorénavant responsable de la gestion et de l'exploitation du bâtiment lui appartenant.
