BACKGROUND

The 2022-2026 Council Governance Review report considered by Council on December 7, 2022, noted a need for the City's advisory bodies, including Advisory Committees, to be reviewed further to recent decisions of the Ontario Divisional Court and Ontario Ombudsman. Council directed the City Clerk to undertake a review of advisory bodies and provided additional direction regarding other related matters.

The Office of the City Clerk worked with a Council-appointed working group and made recommendations with respect to the City's advisory body structure and related procedural requirements and guidance. These recommendations were included in the Advisory Body Review report (ACS2023-OCC-GEN-0008), approved by City Council on July 12, 2023.

The report also clarified that Advisory Committees, including the Community Safety and Well-Being Advisory Committee, are considered to be statutory "local boards" of the City of Ottawa and are therefore subject to certain mandatory by-law and policy requirements.

This report to the Community Safety and Well-Being Advisory Committee recommends the adoption of these mandatory policy requirements, in accordance with the provisions set out in Document 3, Appendix A of the Advisory Body Review report.

DISCUSSION

By approving the recommendations of this report, the Community Safety and Well-Being Advisory Committee will be meeting its statutory obligations under the Municipal Act, 2001, as a local board.

For a detailed analysis, see the Advisory Body Review Report.

Procedural requirements for Advisory Committees

Procedural requirements with respect to Advisory Committees are set out below. They include statutory requirements as well as matters relating to departmental support and consultation.

Statutory requirements

By-law and policies

1. Advisory Committees must:

- a. Pass a procedure by-law for governing the calling, place and proceedings of meetings, including public notice of meetings [Subsections 238(2) and 238(2.1) of the Municipal Act, 2001].
- b. Adopt and maintain policies with respect to the sale and other disposition of land; hiring of employees; and procurement of goods and services [Subsection 270(2) of the Municipal Act, 2001].
- c. Establish rules and procedures with respect to the use of board resources during the election campaign period [Section 88.18 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996].

Open meetings

2. Advisory Committees must hold open meetings except in particular circumstances set out in the Municipal Act, 2001 [Sections 239 to 239.2 of the Municipal Act, 2001].

Code of conduct

3. Advisory Committee members are subject to the Code of Conduct for Members of Local Boards [Section 223.2 of the Municipal Act, 2001].

Statutory accountability officers

4. Advisory Committees are subject to the City's Meetings Investigator appointed to review requests for investigation regarding whether a meeting of a local board was properly closed to the public [sections 239 to 239.2 of the Municipal Act, 2001].
5. Advisory Committee members are subject to the municipal Integrity Commissioner's role with respect to the application of sections 5, 5.1 and 5.2 of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act to local boards [Section 223.3 of the Municipal Act, 2001].
6. Advisory Committees are subject to the oversight role of the City's Auditor General [Section 223.19 of the Municipal Act, 2001].

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no financial implications associated with this report.

LEGAL IMPLICATIONS

There are no legal impediments to approving the recommendations in this report.

COMMENTS BY THE WARD COUNCILLOR(S)

This is a city-wide matter.

CONSULTATION

This report relates to the Community Safety and Well-Being Advisory Committee meeting the minimum requirements under the Municipal Act, 2001, as a local board. No consultation was required.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Supporting documents are included with the report as separate files.

Document 1 – Community Safety and Well-Being Advisory Committee Procedure By-law

Document 2 – Community Safety and Well-Being Advisory Committee Policies for sale and disposition of land, hiring of employees and procurement of goods and services

Document 3 – Community Safety and Well-Being Advisory Committee Rules and procedures regarding the use of resources during the election campaign period

DISPOSITION

By approving the recommendations of this report, the Community Safety and Well-Being Advisory Committee will be meeting its statutory obligations under the Municipal Act, 2001, as a local board.

Ottawa City Council will have the opportunity to review requirements for local boards twice per Term of Council, as part of the Governance Review and Mid-Term Governance Review reports. It is anticipated that the Chairs and Vice-Chairs of the advisory committees will be consulted as part of each review.

Rules, procedures and policies would be “maintained” as required by the Municipal Act, 2001, by further adoptions of revisions approved by Council.
