Geopolitics and Social Unrest

The Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACP) is looking forward to hosting its 120th Annual Summit from August 10 – 12, 2025 in beautiful Victoria, British Columbia.

Same great networking and professional development opportunity!

Canada's police leaders have an opportunity to meet face-to-face to learn and exchange with one another and an exceptional slate of guest speakers. Delegates gain valuable insight on key challenges and opportunities they should be aware of and be prepared for.

Free access to one of Canada's largest policing trade shows!

This is the most efficient and cost-effective way to explore cutting-edge security and policing equipment, techniques, and services available on the market today, from leading industry experts across Canada and the world. And access is not restricted to summit delegates only! Police, first responder, and public agency personnel can attend the trade show only, FREE of charge.

Practical. Affordable. Always memorable.

Add this CACP event to your calendar today and make plans to be there!

Sponsorship & Exhibitors

Welcome to all new and returning sponsors and exhibitors!

The CACP 2025 Annual Summit and Policing Trade Show promises to be a very exciting show this year – don't miss the opportunity to be a part of it! Hosted by the Victoria Police Department, the summit has an anticipated audience of over 350 delegates and 130 exhibit booths.

The CACP's interests and concerns have relevance to police at all levels including municipal, regional, provincial, federal and First Nations.

CACP is dedicated to the support and promotion of efficient law enforcement and to the protection and security of the people of Canada. Much of the work in pursuit of these goals is done through the activities and special projects of a number of committees and through active liaison with various levels of government and departmental ministries having legislative and executive responsibility in law and policing.
