Ontario Heritage Act

File No. ACS2025-PDB-RHU-0024 – Kitchissippi (Ward 15), Orléans West-Innes (Ward 2) and Orléans East-Cumberland (Ward 1)

A slide deck presentation was delivered by Ashley Kotarba, Planner II, Planning, Development & Building Department and Kirsty Walker, Research Coordinator, Planning, Development & Building Department. A copy of the slide deck is filed with the Clerk.

Committee heard two delegations:

- Richard Pommainville, Ottawa-Cornwall Archdiocese, delegated in opposition to the report recommendations and the consultation section of the report.
- David Jeanes delegated in support of the report recommendations.

The Committee also received two written submissions from the Hintonburg Community Association and Heritage Ottawa.

Lesley Collins, Program Manager, Planning, Development & Building Department, Ashley Kotarba, Planner II, Planning, Development & Building Department and Kirsty Walker, Research Coordinator, Planning, Development & Building Department were available to answer questions.

Vice Chair Plante moved motion 2025-22-02, which Committee carried.

Following questions and answers, the Committee approved the report recommendations, as amended.

Report Recommendation(s)

That the Built Heritage Committee recommend that Council:

- 1. Issue a Notice of Intention to Designate église Saint-François-d'Assise at 1062 Wellington Street West under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act according to the Statement of Cultural Heritage Value attached as Document 5.
- 2. Issue a Notice of Intention to Designate église Saint-Joseph d'Orléans at 2757 St. Joseph Boulevard under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act according to the Statement of Cultural Heritage Value attached as Document 6.

Carried as amended

Amendment:

Motion No. BHC 2025-22-02

Moved by S. Plante

WHEREAS the property owner has clarified that they are not in support of the proposed designation of 1062 Wellington or 2757 St. Joseph Boulevard;

THEREFORE be it resolved that this second paragraph in the Consultation Section be amended to clarify that the property owner is not in support of the proposed designation:

English Report (Page 12):

Both the congregations and the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Ottawa-Cornwall are not supportive of the proposed designations. Staff have worked with the property owners to identify important features of each building.

French Report (Pages 11 et 12):

Les deux congrégations et l'Archidiocèse catholique romain d'Ottawa-Cornwall ne sont pas d'accord avec la désignation proposée. Le personnel a consulté les propriétaires de ces églises afin de cerner les caractéristiques importantes de chacun des deux édifices.
