

City of Ottawa Sinking Fund
Audit Results
December 31, 2018

May 7, 2019

We are pleased to provide the required communications related to our audit of the 2018 financial statements of the City of Ottawa Sinking Fund (the “Fund”).

Our audit was designed to express an opinion on the 2018 financial statements. We continue to receive the full support and assistance of personnel in conducting our audit. Open and candid dialogue with you is a critical step in the audit process, and in the overall corporate governance process and we appreciate this opportunity to share the insights from our audit with you.

At Ernst & Young, we continually evaluate the quality of our professionals’ work in order to deliver remarkable client service. We strive to provide you with audit services of the highest quality that will meet or exceed your expectations, and we encourage you to provide feedback on the quality of our audit services.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Fund and management of the City of Ottawa. It is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties. We disclaim any responsibility to any third party who may rely on it. Our audit did not necessarily identify all matters that may be of interest to the Fund in fulfilling their responsibilities. The detailed terms of our engagement are outlined in our engagement letter.

We look forward to discussing the contents of this letter and answering any questions you may have about these or any other audit-related matters.

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Ernst & Young LLP' in a cursive, flowing script.

Chartered Professional Accountants
Licensed Public Accountants

Suzanne Gignac, CPA, CA
Partner

REQUIRED COMMUNICATIONS

Area	Comments
Auditor’s responsibilities under Canadian GAAS, including discussion of the type of opinion we are issuing The financial statements are the responsibility of management. Our audit was designed in accordance with Canadian auditing standards to obtain reasonable, rather than absolute, assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.	Upon completion of our remaining audit procedures noted below, we currently expect to issue an unmodified opinion on the Fund’s financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2018. Remaining audit procedures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete subsequent events procedures; • Obtain signed letter of representation; and • Obtain confirmation of approval of the financial statements.
Overview of planned scope and timing We discuss with those charged with governance an overview of the planned audit scope and timing. These discussions are intended to assist those charged with governance in better understanding the consequences of the auditor’s work for their oversight activities, discussing with the auditors issues of risk and materiality, and identifying any areas for which they may request the auditor to undertake additional procedures.	There were no significant changes in the planned scope and timing of our audit.
Our responsibility, any procedures performed or expected to be performed and the results relating to other information in documents containing audited financial statements Our responsibility to read the other information in documents containing audited financial statements and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.	No other information.

Area	Comments
Major issues discussed with management in connection with initial appointment or recurring retention We discuss with those charged with governance any major professional issues that were discussed (orally or in writing) with management in connection with our initial or recurring retention as the auditor, including, among other matters, any discussions regarding the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, the scope of the audit, financial statement disclosures and the wording of the auditor's report. We communicate those major professional issues we discussed with management, prior to our being hired as the auditors, and during the client's two most recently completed fiscal years and any subsequent interim period.	None.
Significant audit adjustments, including significant disclosure differences that merit the attention of those charged with governance We provide those charged with governance with information about adjustments and disclosure differences that merit the attention of those charged with governance arising from the audit (whether corrected or not) that could in our judgment, either individually or in the aggregate, have a significant effect on the financial statements.	There were no significant audit adjustments or significant disclosure differences identified in relation to the 2018 audit.
Uncorrected misstatements, including significant disclosure differences that merit the attention of those charged with governance, considered by management to be immaterial We inform those charged with governance about uncorrected misstatements accumulated by us (i.e., adjustments either identified by us or brought to our attention by management) during the current audit and pertaining to the latest period presented that were determined by management to be immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole.	There were no uncorrected misstatements or significant disclosure differences identified in relation to the 2018 audit.

Area	Comments
Critical accounting policies and practices We communicate all critical accounting policies and practices used by the Fund in preparing the financial statements and our assessment of the disclosure of such policies.	None.
Our judgments about the quality of the Fund's accounting principles We discuss our judgments about the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting policies as applied in the Entity's financial reporting, including the consistency of the accounting policies and their application and the clarity and completeness of the financial statements and related disclosures.	No issues with quality or acceptability of accounting policies applied by the Fund except as noted in this report.
The adoption of, or a change in, an accounting principle We determine that those charged with governance are informed about the initial selection of, and any changes in, significant accounting principles or accounting policies or their application when the accounting principle or its application, including alternative methods of applying the accounting principle, has a material effect on the financial statements.	During the year, the Fund adopted the following standards: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PS 3210 – Assets • PS 3320 – Contingent Assets • PS 2200 – Related Party Disclosures • PS 3380 – Contractual Rights • PS 3420 – Inter-Entity Transactions The effect of adopting these standards did not materially affect the 2018 financial statements.
Methods of accounting for significant unusual transactions and for controversial or emerging areas We determine that those charged with governance are informed about the methods used to account for significant unusual transactions and the effects of significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.	We are not aware of any significant unusual transactions recorded by the Fund or of any significant accounting policies used by the Fund related to controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance.

Area	Comments
Sensitive accounting estimates The preparation of the financial statements can require the use of accounting estimates. Certain estimates are particularly sensitive due to their significance to the financial statements and the possibility that future events may differ significantly from management's current judgments. We determine that those charged with governance are informed about management's process for formulating particularly sensitive accounting estimates and about the basis for our conclusions regarding the reasonableness of those estimates.	None.
Material alternative accounting treatments discussed with management We discuss with those charged with governance all alternative accounting treatments within GAAP for policies and practices related to material items (including recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure alternatives) that have been discussed with management during the current audit period including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, including the reasons why the alternative was selected and, if management did not select our preferred alternative, the reasons why it was not selected. ▶ The treatment preferred by us. 	None.
Disagreements with management We discuss with those charged with governance any disagreements with management, whether or not satisfactorily resolved, about matters that individually or in the aggregate could be significant to the Fund's financial statements or the auditor's reports.	None.
Management's consultations with other accountants When we are aware that management has consulted with other accountants about auditing, accounting, or reporting matters, we discuss with those charged with governance our views about significant matters that were the subject of such consultation.	None of which we are aware.

Area	Comments
Serious difficulties encountered in dealing with management when performing the audit We inform those charged with governance of any serious difficulties encountered in dealing with management related to the performance of the audit.	None.
Fraud and non-compliance with laws and regulations (illegal acts) We communicate to those charged with governance fraud and illegal acts involving senior management and fraud and illegal acts (whether caused by senior management or other employees) that cause a material misstatement of the financial statements. We also communicate other matters of non-compliance with laws and regulations that come to our attention during the audit, unless they are clearly inconsequential.	We are not aware of any matters that require communication. We would ask the Committee and Council to inform us prior to the issuance of the financial statements if they are aware of any fraud or illegal acts which could impact the financial statements.
Other material written communications with, and representations sought from management We determine that those charged with governance have received copies of all material written communications with management, including representations requested from them related to uncorrected errors.	Under separate cover, we have provided you with a copy of the following communications with management: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Management representation letter
Other findings or issues regarding the oversight of the financial reporting process We communicate other findings or issues, if any, arising from the audit that are, in our professional judgment, significant and relevant to those charged with governance regarding their oversight of the financial reporting process.	There are no other findings or issues arising from the audit that are, in our judgment, significant and relevant to those charged with governance regarding the oversight of the financial reporting process.
Subsequent events We inquire of management and, where appropriate, those charged with governance as to whether any subsequent events have occurred which might affect the financial statements.	None of which we are aware. We would ask the Committee and Council to inform us prior to the issuance of the financial statements if there are any subsequent events which could impact the financial statements.

Building a better
working world

Area	Comments
Related party transactions The auditor shall communicate with those charged with governance significant matters arising during the audit in connection with the Fund's related parties.	None of which we are aware.

EY | Assurance | Tax | Transactions | Advisory

About EY

EY is a global leader in assurance, tax, transaction and advisory services. The insights and quality services we deliver help build trust and confidence in the capital markets and in economies the world over. We develop outstanding leaders who team to deliver on our promises to all of our stakeholders. In so doing, we play a critical role in building a better working world for our people, for our clients and for our communities.

EY refers to the global organization and may refer to one or more of the member firms of Ernst & Young Global Limited, each of which is a separate legal entity. Ernst & Young Global Limited, a UK company limited by guarantee, does not provide services to clients.

For more information about our organization, please visit ey.com.

© 2016 Ernst & Young LLP. All Rights Reserved.

A member firm of Ernst & Young Global Limited.

This publication contains information in summary form, current as of the date of publication, and is intended for general guidance only. It should not be regarded as comprehensive or a substitute for professional advice. Before taking any particular course of action, contact Ernst & Young or another professional advisor to discuss these matters in the context of your particular circumstances. We accept no responsibility for any loss or damage occasioned by your reliance on information contained in this publication.

ey.com