

Indigenous employment equity strategies

Employ Indigenous health equity lens

Anti-racism training

Regular guidance from First Nations, Inuit and Métis Elders/Knowledge Keepers

Evaluation process with accountability measures

Ongoing Reconcili-ACTION activities (e.g. facilitated talking circles)

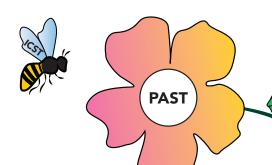

Collaborative development of the Reconcili-ACTION Plan Evaluation Framework (2019)

Ottawa Board of Health (BOH) orientation session on Reconciliation & Indigenous Health Equity (2018)

Reconcili-ACTION Plan socialized (2018-2019)

OPH Reconcili-ACTION Plan approved by BOH (2018)

OPH supports Ottawa Indigenous Health Strategy (OIHS) community-led projects (2017-ongoing)

Annual progress reports to the BOH established (2017)

OPH Reconcili-ACTION Plan developed; validated by Indigenous partners & Elders (2017)

Consultation re: OIHS (2016)

Wabano Dental Clinic opens (2016)

Collaborative health promotion activities with First Nations, Inuit and Métis partners (ongoing)

OPH First Nation, Inuit and Métis Outreach Network created (2012)

Initiation of annual meetings with Indigenous partners (2010)

OPH joins City of Ottawa's Aboriginal Working Committee (2007)

Indigenous Cultural Safety Training (ICST)

Respect

Relationship

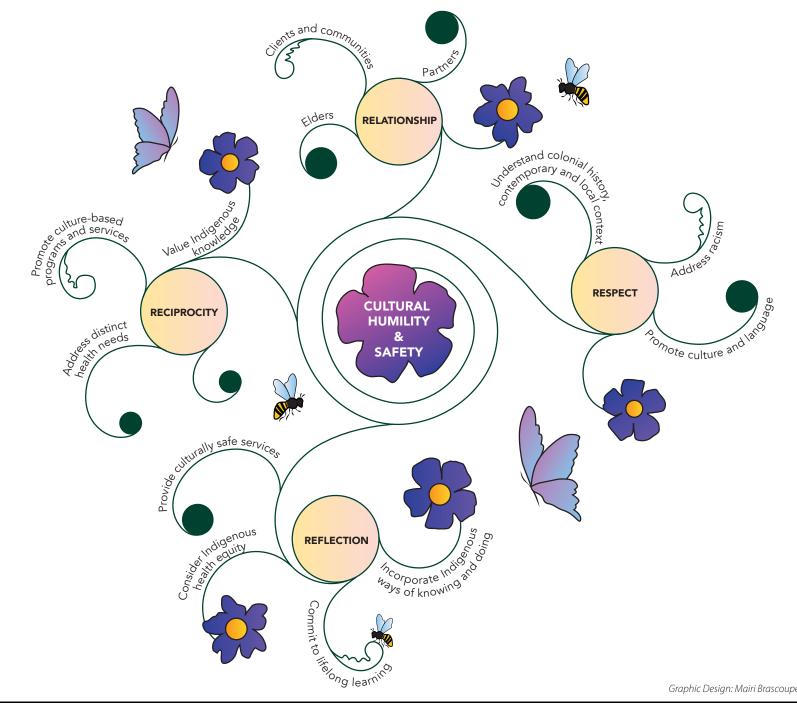

Reciprocity

Reflection

Graphic Design: Mairi Brascoupé and Claire Brascoupé

OPH Reconcili-ACTION Evaluation Framework

Graphic Design: Mairi Brascoupé and Claire Brascoupé