

002 - OPLB Delegation of Authority

Background and Principles

In keeping with the Public Libraries Act, RSO 1990, c.P.44 (the Act), other relevant statutes, laws, and good governance practices, the Board retains accountability for the full range of decisions affecting the organization. The Board has decided, however, to use a policy or strategic model of governance that focuses most of the attention of the Trustees on setting strategic direction and objectives, making decisions on major projects and monitoring performance.

In keeping with section 15 of the Act, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) shall have general supervision over, and direction of, the operations of the public library and its staff and shall have the other powers and duties that the Board assigns to him or her from time to time.

Table 1 provides the framework regarding the range of decisions that may be required to operate the library and whether the Board retains decision-making powers or delegates them to the CEO or his/her designate. The Board may impose such terms and conditions upon any delegation as it sees fit, and this shall include the power to vary such terms or rescind the delegation in question.

Policy Interpretation and Details

2.1 Further Delegation of Authority

The CEO is authorized to further delegate and to authorize further delegations of any powers, duties and functions delegated to the CEO by the Board under this or any other policy to any member of OPL staff provided such delegations are authorized in writing. Where authority is delegated to a specific employee in this policy, the authority may be further delegated by the authorized person to other employees provided that such delegation is authorized in writing and does not exceed the authority delegated to the authorized person.

2.2 Emergency or Special Circumstances

In cases of emergency or special circumstances where it is necessary to act within or outside the normal mandate of the OPL, but such action is not strictly within the terms of a delegated authority, the CEO may take such action as necessary to rectify the situation and all such actions shall be reported immediately to the Chair and then the Board.

2.3 Resolution of Conflicts

> The Board retains the power to resolve any conflict or ambiguity regarding the delegation of decision-making authority. The CEO is authorized to resolve any conflict or ambiguity regarding the delegation of the CEO's decision-making powers to OPL staff.
