BACKGROUND

Recreation, Cultural and Facility Services proposes to install parking meters on the south side of Princess Patricia Way, adjacent to the outdoor skating rink at Lansdowne Park. This stretch of Princess Patricia is currently signed as "no parking"; however, it is frequently used for parallel parking by users of the rink. The current zoning prohibits the permanent establishment of parking spaces, and therefore of parking meters.

DISCUSSION

Installing parking meters will help Recreation, Cultural and Facility Services to regulate the use of this stretch of Princess Patricia Way for parallel parking, and to ensure that it is only used for short-term (i.e. pick-up and drop-off) parking.

Current O1S zoning on this site specifies that "temporary but not permanent parking spaces" are permitted in the zone in association with other uses such as the rink. This qualifier precludes installing parking meters that would more efficiently regulate the use of this space: parking meters would implicitly make the south side of this part of Princess Patricia into permanent parallel parking spaces, in contravention of the zoning.

The vision for Lansdowne Park is for a pedestrian- and transit-focused development. However, achieving such a goal must acknowledge that where a limited amount of parking is appropriate, it must be regulated by pricing and time limits. Without parking meters, the subject land attracts users who treat it as free parking with no practical time limit, which in turn prevents the space from being used appropriately i.e. for very short-term pick-up and drop-off.

The proposed zoning amendment will apply only to that part of Princess Patricia Way that is directly adjacent to the rink, in order to permit this particular set of seven regulated permanent parking spaces.

RURAL IMPLICATIONS

The proposed amendment does not affect the rural area.
