City of Ottawa Cultural Funding

Through its Cultural Funding and Awards Programs, the City of Ottawa annually supports the creation, production and presentation of arts, festival, fair and heritage activities undertaken by individuals and not-for-profit professional organizations, as well as, community and amateur groups. The wide range of programs funded by the City creates opportunities for awareness and appreciation of the arts and culture in our community for everyone and reflects a broad representation of communities within Ottawa.

Ottawa is built on un-ceded Algonquin Anishinabeg territory and as such, the City of Ottawa acknowledges and honours the land and peoples of the Algonquin Anishinabeg Nation, whose ancestors have occupied this territory for millennia, and whose culture and presence have nurtured and continue to nurture this place.

The City of Ottawa supports cultural activity that is inclusive of Ottawa's diverse community where people from a diversity of ancestries, abilities, ages, countries of origin, cultures, genders, incomes, languages, races and sexual orientations make this a vibrant city and contribute to creating a city for everyone.

Submissions from applicants reflecting Ottawa's diversity, including First Nations, Inuit and Métis are welcome and encouraged. The City of Ottawa recognizes both official languages as having the same rights, status and privileges, and therefore accepts applications in both English and French.

The Cultural Funding Support Section manages all Cultural Funding and Awards Programs and uses a peer assessment model in the evaluation process, involving professionals who are active within their cultural community. Evaluators and outside assessors are selected for their recognized expertise within specific fields of related work. Committee members represent the community they are assessing but not any particular group or institution, and have an awareness of a broad range of artistic, heritage and/or cultural activity as well as knowledge and appreciation of the diversity of the local cultural community.

Key principles of assessment committee composition strive to create a balanced representation of diversity of content, program and discipline expertise, as well as fair representation of official languages, gender, geographic areas and culture-specific communities.

Peer assessment is a nationally accepted best practice, credible to the arts, heritage, and cultural communities, and has been approved by City Council.

In 2015, the Cultural Funding Support Section managed 428 funding and awards submissions, held 28 juries and used 9 independent assessors, that resulted in 296 funding allocations.

In 2012, City Council approved the Renewed Action Plan for Arts, Heritage and Culture, a six year strategy (2013-2018) that recommends additional investment to help make local cultural organizations more sustainable, thus attracting talent, tourists and business. “Culture plays a central role in cities, contributing positively to economic indicators, social cohesion measures, environmental initiatives, quality-of-life, prosperity, happiness and health.”<sup>1</sup>

Arts Funding Program

The Arts Funding Program addresses the important need for Ottawa residents and visitors to have access to valuable arts programs and services.

Types of funding include:

- Project Funding
- Operating Funding (Annual and Three-Year)
- Funding to Individual Professional Artists (A and B level)

\ 2015 was a reporting year for these organizations therefore they did not go to jury for assessment.*

Partnership Program for Major Cultural Festivals and Fairs (final year)

Festivals and Fairs enrich the lives of residents and visitors alike through the presentation of a wide variety of activities that increase understanding and appreciation of the unique character of our community. Festivals and Fairs celebrate our cultural heritage, and shine a spotlight on contemporary artists and art forms.

In 2015, the Partnership Program for Major Cultural Festivals & Fairs Program was under review and therefore did not accept any new, first time applicants to the program.

In August 2015, City Council approved the proposed creation of two separate funding programs; one for Major Arts & Cultural Festivals and one for Major Agricultural Fairs. These new programs take effect in 2016.

\ 2015 was a reporting year for these organizations therefore they did not go to jury for assessment.*

Youth in Culture Pilot Program

This program was created in order to address the City of Ottawa's Renewed Action Plan for Arts, Heritage and Culture in Ottawa (2013 – 2018), strategy 1, Celebrate Ottawa's Unique Cultural Identity and Provide Access to Culture for All, Action 4, Nurture and Empower Ottawa's Youth.

In 2013 and 2014, the Cultural Funding Support Section (CFSS), piloted a funding program, Pilot Program for Youth Training Initiatives, directed towards existing cultural organizations to develop and provide training opportunities, internships, apprenticeships and work placement programs for youth; and to promote existing initiatives that fostered youth awareness around careers in culture. The Program aimed to provide supplementary project funding to professional cultural organizations currently receiving operating funding from the City of Ottawa who provided professional training opportunities for youth aged 18-25.

Evaluation of the funding program throughout late 2014 and early 2015, found that although the program was generally successful, it had not reached the desired level of impact. A revised funding program is now looking at piloting a "by Youth for Youth" approach in which a Youth in Culture Committee will assist CFSS in developing the youth program and assessing applications, from individuals aged 18 to 30, in all aspects of the arts and heritage training and development, including self-produced projects.

Youth in Culture Committee

Under the guidance of the City of Ottawa's Cultural Funding Support Section, the Youth in Culture Committee was established in 2015 in order to help develop, promote and implement the new Youth in Culture Pilot Program, designed 'by Youth for Youth'.

The Youth in Culture Committee consists of 12 individuals between the ages of 17 and 35 years, who are active in Ottawa's local cultural communities (arts and heritage), and who believe in making culture and cultural careers accessible to youth in Ottawa.

Key principles of the committee composition include balanced representation of artistic practice, heritage specialization, and festival/fair expertise as well as fair representation of official languages, gender, geographic areas, and culture-specific communities.

Firestone Collection of Canadian Art Management Agreement

Originally established by Ottawa residents O.J. and Isobel Firestone in the early 1950s, the Firestone Collection of Canadian Art is a significant collection of works that spans the modern period (1900-1980). In 1972, the Firestone family donated their collection to the Ontario Heritage Foundation.

In 1992, the Foundation transferred ownership of this collection to the City of Ottawa with custodianship given to the Ottawa Art Gallery. The Ottawa Art Gallery receives a purchase of service grant each year to care for, manage and exhibit the City-owned Firestone Collection of Canadian Art.
