

Summary of Written and Oral Submissions: Zoning By-Law Amendment, 4747 and 4755 Bank Street

In addition to those outlined in the Consultation Details section of the report, the following outlines the written and oral submissions received between the publication of the report and prior to City Council's consideration:

Number of delegations/submissions

Number of delegations at Planning Committee: 2

Number of written submissions received by Planning Committee and Council between April 1 and April 24, 2019 : 0

Primary concerns, by individual

Daniel Flanagan (oral submission)

- raised concerns about the need to protect turtles from the Leitrim Wetlands and suggested that a fence be installed around the entire development area in spring, right after the snow and ice melt

Primary arguments in support, by individual

Erin O'Connor, Regional Group of Companies Inc. (applicant) (oral submission)

- there is a buffer between the wetlands and the development site, and there is a large professional team, including a biologist, monitoring the activities onsite, and over construction; no turtles have been seen onsite yet

Effect of Submissions on Planning Committee Decision: Debate: The committee spent nine minutes on this item.

Vote: The committee carried the report recommendations as presented, without change. The committee also carried a motion to amend the 'Comments by the Ward Councillors' section of the report to add comments from Councillor Meehan.

Effect of Submissions on Council Decision:

Council considered all written and oral submissions in making its decision and CARRIED this item as presented, without change to the report recommendations.
