REPORT RECOMMENDATIONS

That Community and Protective Services Committee and Council receive this report and approve the updated Mission Statement for Crime Prevention Ottawa:

“To contribute to crime prevention and enhanced community safety and well-being in Ottawa through collaborative, evidence-informed initiatives.”

Councillor Diane Deans, Chair of Crime Prevention Ottawa (CPO) gave some introductory remarks on the work of CPO and introduced Nancy Worsfold, Manager of Crime Prevention Ottawa.

A copy of their presentation is held on file with the City Clerk's office.

Following the presentation Committee members had a variety of comments not limited to the following:

The work with youth is very helpful and positive. There is a hope that CPO will continue in that direction.

Many activities for youth and youth interest can be done with minimum amount of dollars if community behind you. Not new ideas but tried and true. Part of what we need to continue to do is to find diversion for youth that are constructive and give opportunities and feed into things they're interested in and that they can take pride in.

The report recommendation was put to Committee and RECEIVED and CARRIED as presented.
