NATIONAL EVENT

Planning for Canada Day begins on July 2nd of the previous year

The current pandemic has resulted in Canadian Heritage cancelling the normal preparations for the National Canada Day celebrations.

There will be no:

- § The Changing of the Guard
- § Outdoor stage performances
- § Fireworks display

A virtual performance will be streamed online. Details have not yet been finalized.

LOCAL EVENTS

The City of Ottawa is following Phase 1 of the reopening plan and the earliest date for Phase 2 is July 2nd. Therefore there will be no permits issued for any events.

No public fireworks displays will be permitted

City has no indication of any special BIA activities, nor will they provide approval

OPS PLANNING/DEPLOYMENT

Event Planning Section is continually assessing potential impacts of:

- § Visitors to Parliament Hill/downtown core
- § People attending the patios in the Market and Elgin Street bar districts
- § Ongoing scan regarding potential demonstrations
- § Private celebrations/gatherings

2021 DEPLOYMENT

Planning and deployments are intelligence based and scans will continue. At this point, the exact deployment profile is still being formulated.

2022

We expect to see a return of Canada Day events in 2022.

Canada Day falls on a Friday in 2022.

It is likely that there will be an increase in the size and duration of events as the federal government and community organizers wish to celebrate a return to “normal”.
