3. NATIONAL STRATEGY ON ADDRESSING CYBERCRIME

The nature of crime has changed. Crimes using technology evolve faster than the law, this diminishes the ability of law enforcement agencies to protect the public. The CAPG supports the Government of Canada building a National Cyber Security Action Plan that protects all Canadians, and includes protection of critical municipal infrastructure.

Policing in Canada is at a crossroads. Community trust and confidence has eroded and urgent change is needed. CAPG believes now is the time for a National Task Force to address the myriad of emerging issues and modernize the current approaches to policing and police governance in Canada. CAPG is prepared to work with the Government of Canada in determining the scope of work and delivery of a meaningful and timely task force.

8. POLICE GOVERNANCE

Establish national training and accreditation, in conjunction with a national awareness campaign, to position Canadian Police Governance as a progressive and leading standard world-wide. There has never been a better opportunity for the Government of Canada to invest in a CAPG movement to establish enhanced credibility, accountability, principle-based guidelines, and broad-based awareness of the critical responsibility, commitment and service that citizens across our country, passionately contribute to the realm of Canadian Police Governance.
